PROSPECTUS
OF THE Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully—felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances" We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

ADDRESS TO THE REPUBLICANS AND PEOPLE OF LOUISIANA.

Headquarters Regular Republican Party of Louisiana, No. 16 Dryades street
New Orleans, June 29, 1872.

A convention of the regular Republican party has adjourned to meet on the ninth of August next in the Mechanic's Institue, in the city of New Orleans. By a resolution of this convention, the basis of representation in the same has been doubled, and an election has been ordered for an additional number of delegates to the same, equal in number to the whole delegation already elected. The object in this is to afford an opportunity to all the people of this State who approve of the principles herein set forth to take part in the deliberations of the convention, and in the nomination of capable, honest and representative men, who have their homes and interests in Louisiana, upon a ticket and platform of principles which shall secure the support of all the good people of this State.

In the present confused and transition state of political parties we recognize three universal and powerful sentiments, which run through the hearts of a large majority of the people of this State, without distinction of party. These are:

First—A desire for an honest, economical and stable government, administered by representative men of character and capacity, who shall be chosen without distinction from any official ring.

Second—A conviction that the interests of all the people of this State are identical, and a desire for a growth of new political relations, which shall obliterate past class and sectional animosities, and cultivate that mutual conciliation and good will which is essential to our common prosperity, and to the permanent success of any political party; and Third—A growing recognition of the good policy and necessity of a closer alliance between the voters of the Republican party and that portion of the native population of the State which has hitherto abstained from political affairs on account of differences created by the late civil war. With such a party, based upon such liberal and beneficient principles, we believe that the rights of the colored people would be safer and better protected, the liberty of opinion and the political interests of the ex-Union soldier, the Northern settler, and the old Union citizen, more cordially and completely secured and the intelligence and property of the State, and the rights of the native Confederate Southerner be better represented than is possible under any other practical combination.

In these premises, we say to the Republicans of the State that in the organization and upon the basis presented by us, is their sole hope for electing any Republican officers in the State, and for preserving their party. The success of the Customhouse state ticket nominated at Baton Rouge is hopeless, and if the fortunes of the Republican party are attached to it, its defeat is certain.

To demonstrate this, we call their attention to the history of the Packard-Customhouse convention at Baton Rouge, which has assumed to present candidates to the people of this State in the name of the Republican party.

Messrs. Packard, Casey, Herwig, Stockdale & Co. set out to control the Republican convention called for August 9, 1671, in the interest of their Customhouse ring, with a view of getting control of the State government at this election for themselves and their associates. To do this they conspired to control that convention. With this design they sought and obtained permission to use the Customhouse building, the marshals of the United States courts, and the forces of the United States army. In defiance of all decency and respect for public opinion, and to the great scandal of the national government, they convoked the convention to assemble in a United States courtroom in the Customhouse. They rejected all protests of their Republican fellow-citizens with the imperial insolence and haughtiness of Eastern satraps. To make sure of controlling the primary organization of the convention, and, in defiance of all known rules for the organization of such bodies, Messrs. Packard, Casey and their co-conspirators undertook to debar all delegates, except such as they admitted, from a voice in the election of the temporary president. Not satisfied with this, they closed and barred all the doors of the immense Customhouse building against the public for one whole day in order that the lobby, as well as the floor of the convention, should be packed by their own partisans. To further intimidate and coerce the delegates, they filled the building with special deputy United States marshals armed for the occasion. To complete these extraordinary preparations for a political convention and to emphasize the inauguration of this new style of consulting the wishes of the people, they obtained the necessary order from the military authorities and fortified the closed Customhouse with Gatlin guns and garrisoned it with United States soldiers under arms. One hundred and ten delegates to the convention, being a majority, disgusted and indignant at these tyrannical proceedings, turned away from the Customhouse and assembled in Turner Hall. The State Central Committee appointed by that convention has by its authority convoked the present one.

On the nineteenth of June Mr. Packard and his partisans called a convention at Baton Rouge to nominate candidates for the State offices. The Customhouse cabal could not keep good faith even with their own confederates. In order to secure the nomination of the favorites of their own ring, and obey instructions from a "higher authority," they expelled from their convention all representative and independent men, and seated strangers, intruders, carpet-baggers and proxies of their own creation, until their convention consisted of Customhouse officials, internal revenue tax collectors and postmasters.

Customhouse employes, who were elected as delegates to the Baton Rouge convention were openly threatened with dismissal from office by United States Marshal Packard if they failed to vote as he dictated. The lists of delegates elected as furnished to the State Central Committee by the parish and ward clubs were suppressed by Mr. Packard for four weeks previous to the meeting of the convention, and the names of delegates were not allowed to be made known to members of the committee. Lists of delegates pledged to the ring candidates were manufactured in the United States marshal's office and foisted upon the convention as the regularly elected delegates. Lobby tickets were issued, so that all access even to the lobby was denied to any but the partisans of Mr. Packard. Mr. Casey refused, in the presence of several well known gentlemen, to assure his Customhouse employes that their places should not be imperiled if they voted independently of Mr. Packard's dictation. Mr. Packard and his instruments, when they discovered that a majority of the convention favored union with the regular Republicans, substituted a fraudulent resolutions in place of the one really offered, by which such insulting conditions were imposed that union was made impossible. They refused all honorable offers of union with the regular Republicans for the sole reason that such compromise would intefere with the Customhouse state for nominations. The President and secretary of the convention were convicted in open session of fraudulently altering their own rolls. Credentials were withheld from legally elected delegates unless they would pledge themselves to vote as Mr. Packard ordered them. Finally, by a series of fraudulent, corrupt and tyrannical measures, they rammed the choice of a small Customhouse ring down the throats of the convention in the place of able and wellknown Republicans, who were really their choice, drove away over one-half of their own members, and cut themselves off from the whole body of regular Republicans, so that success under their lead, and with their ticket, is impossible.

This convention, so constituted, in obedience to the will of its master, James F. Casey, and his chief tool, S. B. Packard, nominated an ex-United States collector of customs and a Johnson Democrat and a resident of Illinois for Governor, who was the defender of the massacre of 1866, who refused to employ a single colored man in the Customhouse and who refused to vote for Mr. Sumner's civil rights bill in the United States Senate; a man who has never had a permanent residence in this State, has never been indentified with the Republican party and who is a subservient creature of the military ring at Washington.

Their candidate for Lieutenant Governor is a Wilderness Senator, who last winter conspired with Customhouse men and Democrats to overthrow the Republican State government. We therefore say in all honesty and candor to the whole body of Republican and colored voters in Louisiana, without regard to past differences, that the only hope for the permanent preservation of their rights and the continued success of Republican principles rests in the thorough reform, the broader reorganization of the party and the more cordial relations with the native people of the state, to be attained under the leadership of this organization upon the basis above set forth.

To the ex-Union soldier and the native Union Southerner we say that to preserve their interests from the disastrous defeat which awaits the Customhouse clique, and also from the inimical reaction threatened by the restoration of old Democratic organizations and prejudices, and to do their part in wiping out past animosities and furthering closer and more friendly alliance with the old people of the State, as well as to keep faith and discharge their obligations to the colored people who have stood so firmly and faithfully by them, we have opened the only safe and honest road for them and us to follow.

To that large portion of that Southern people who have not hither acted with the Republican party, but who have earnestly desired a reorganization of political parties, to secure an honest, stable economical government, and who are willing to extend an earnest, full and cordial rdcognition of the newly acquired rights of the colored men, and also to accord them equal chances of advancement, man for man, according to their character ability intelligence, we say, frankly and boldly, that a new era has arrived. which, if approached with the same candor and liberality on their side as on ours, will remove the clouds that have lowered over us since reconstruction, conciliate all classes of our people, and restore our State to its ancient posperity, dignity and independence.

We, therefore, for the best interests of Louisiana, and all her people, with an honest desire to save the just rights of all classes—to inaugurate an era of good fellowship between her citizens, and to restore to our State "a government of the people, for the people, and by the people," invite all who agree with the principles and sentiments above set forth to join in electing aditional delegates to the convention adjourned to August 9, and to assist in there embodying these principles in authoritative form, and in selecting the best men to carry them into execution.

By order of the committee.

MAKING A NEWSPAPER.—The New York Herald when Bennett first started it was not much larger than a sheet of letter paper, but it gave much light, minute and cheerful news. It was full of short paragraphs, printed in small type, and was an eminently saleable article. It sold well from the first day, but still Bennett had at first a terrible time. The extreme cheapness of the paper rendered him absolutely dependent upon its advertisers, and yet he dared not charge them more than fifty cents for a square of sixteen lines. So he had to cut down the expenses to a minimum. He did everything himself. He swept out his cellar, he carried the paper to the few subscribers it possessed in the morning, he wrote the editorials, the news, the criticisms. He did the reporting and the bookkeeping—all, in fact that was done. He sat behind his barrels and his plank, placidly writing, and when any one came for a paper, he never looked up but just said, "put the money on the counter and take one." His working day was sixteen hours. In the morning, from 5 to 8, he wrote editorials, in his bedroom. During the business hours he was in the cellar engaged in ordinary routine of editorial work. About 1 o'clock, having provided abundant copy for the compositors he sallied forth into Wall street to compile stock tables, and to get matter for spicy paragraphs. From 4 to 6 he was in his office again, winding up the business of the day. In the evening he was abroad—at the theatres, or concert, ball, or public meeting, which were faithfully written up and handed to the printers before he went to bed. He thus, like Atlas, bore the whole weight of his world upon his own shoulders.

EDITORIAL ITEMS.

☞ Every column of a newspaper contains from ten to twenty thousand distinct pieces of type. The displacement of a single one, makes an error. Is it strange that errors occur?

☞ Dr. R. I. Cromwell, the sole editor and proprietor of the Negro Gazette, and the defeated candidate for Congress at large in the Packard Convention at Baton Rouge left the city on Monday last on a brief visit to St. Cloud, Minnesota. He will soon "come back" to us, and "resume the publication of his paper."

☞ The candor of the editor of the Iberville South is worthy of admiration, if not of emulation. This is what he says:

"We will bet an old second-hand white, that we now have in our sanctum, that there is but one man in the parish of Iberville that would refuse a political office, and we honestly confess that "we are not the man."

INFORMATION WANTED.—Any person who can inform us where the residence of Lewis Trager is located, will confer a favor on the voters of this parsh.

We copy the above from the Vidalia Herald, of June 28. While we were in Baton Rouge, in official attendance at the Convention, we were informed that Mr. Trager was a resident of a town in Wilkinson county, in the State of Mississippi. Our contemporary of the Herald can cross the river and see for himself.

☞ We are informed that the ladies fair, recently held in Central Church which is under the pastorate care of Rev. C. H. Thompson D. D., was successful enough to realize six hundred dollars in aid of the purchase of the building, corner of Gasquet and Liberty streets in this City. All honor to the ladies who, by the supply of useful and ornamental articles and their indefatigable exertions attracted a crowd of purchasers, and all credit to the gentlemen who so liberally patronized the FAIR.

IN SEARCH OF HIS FATHER.

We have been requested to publish the following:

"Lewis James, son of Gabriel James, will be happy to hear from his mother Luey, or either of his brothers, Washington and Richard. The Mother, it is supposed, lives on one of Judge Perkin's farms, called the Homestead, Briar mede and back land. The brothers, it is thought, reside in New Orleans. An uncle, Daniel Armstrong, a Methodist preacher, also formerly lived in New Orleans. Lewis James left before the war. He has resided some time in Jersey City, and is now sick in the Charity Hospital. Should the Postmaster (Col. Lowell) be able to convey the information to any of the parties named, he will confer a great favor on Lewis James. A letter addressed to my care will be immediately conveyed to Lewis James."

Respectfully,
W. VERRINDER,
City Missionary; 278 South street, Jersey City, N. J.

June 25, 1872.

ST. JAMES ALL ALIVE.

The constituents of Senator O. F. Hunsaker, in the parish of St. James, are keenly alive to their position and duties, and the writer of the following letter has addressed their representative for information, giving him the assurance that they are "standing firm."

ST. JAMES, June 27, 1872.

To Hon. O. F. Hunsaker,

Dear Sir.—I now take this present opportunity of writing to you a few lines, and hoping that you are well. We are anxiously awaiting on you as to the political situation. We could not hear anything from you, and we resolved to write to you to let you know of our anxiety to hear from you through the medium of a letter. We are standing firm, as when you left us, awaiting orders so that we can march with victory perching on our banners.

Yours Respectfully, etc.,

REGULAR REPUBLICAN PARTY.

ORGANIZED FOR A VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN.

Since the adjournment of the Republican Convention, to meet on Monday, Ausust 9, the State Central Executive Committee have gone to work in dead earnest. The address and circular, which we publish elsewhere, are evidences of the determination of the legitimate heads of the Republican party in the State of Louisiana to point out to deluded Republicans the error of their way in allying themselves with a usurping and unscrupulous band of Customhouse officials, to inform them of the purposes of the regular Republican party, and to advise them as to the best means to effect such unity of action as will not only overwhelm with defeat and merited disgrace, those who by the use of corrupt means, controlled the nominations at Baton Rouge, but insure the free nomination in August, and the election in November, of men who deserve to be placed in the forefront as the heads of the several departments. To the people in the parishes we say, be led astray by no coaxing or threatening. You are on the eve of the most important State campaign since reconstruction, and if you permit yourselves to be induced to follow the Customhouse, they will lead you where they are assuredly going, to an ignominious defeat.

As you love freedom of thought and action, as you prize the right to vote for whom you please, and as you have seen how the Federal office-holders have disdained and trampeled under foot those rights, don't follow them. Turn your attention to the Regular Republican party, listen to its counsels, weigh well its advice, elect your additional delegates from your best and truest men, and send them to the Convention in August: trust such men with your interests, and the Convention will be enabled to offer such a ticket as will command the respect and support of the whole people of Louisiana.

ABUSE OF "BRIEF AUTHORITY."—On Monday afternoon, while the prisoners sentenced in Recorder Houston's court, that day, were wending their way into the "Black Maria," for conveyance to the prison, a woman, (apparently Irish), having one infant in her arms, and another stepping close by her side, grumbled out some complaint, when the officer who was receiving the commitments rudely commanded her to harry in and hush up, informing her that if he had been the judge he would have given her twenty-five lashes on her bare ——.

We call the attention of the Police authorities to such conduct. An officer has no right to trample on erring, fallen humanity. Offenders may deserve little sympathy for their drunkenness and other vices, but it is not for those to whose custody the violated laws remit prisoners for safe conduct, or safe keeping to add to their calamities by insult and harsh treatment.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH OF JULY.—Thursday last, the ninety-sixth anniversary of the Independence of the American Republic, all the public offices, State and national, were closed for the day. Flags, ensigns and banners decorated the public buildings, consulates, printing establishments, water craft, and various other places; indeed the general appearance of things wore the evident aspect of a holiday. Pluvius, who can't be a good Republican, (following the worthless example of the Customhouse folks), was not, however, in "harmony" with the arrangements for enjoyment, and we have no doubt that the cloudiness of the morning, increasing to darkness, thunder and rain in the evening, spoiled many a proprosal for frolic. Propriety and comfort dictated "indoors" to all, and thus beyond the ennobling and patriotic reflections over the glories won by the sturdy patriots of '96, and the immense results accruing to posterity, to civilization, human progress, and universal enlightenment, which the "holiday" afforded, there was not much sport was in it.

TWO SIDES TO IT.

One of the great misfortunes which some men entail on themselves is, they imagine that their representation of an affair is all that is necessary to settle a dispute and dispose satisfactorily of every moot point. Thus, when the charge of "coercion," "corruption" and "purchase of votes" is made against the Customhouse officials in forcing the recent nominations, no less a personage than Mr. C. F. Ladd mounts the stand and volunteers his testimony to quiet all cavil. But his zeal outruns his discretion. He undertakes without authority to speak for others, and not even the proverbial good nature of "Jerry A. Hall" could brook such an assumption, and so this gentleman protests in a card against Mr. Ladd's speak for him.

Joking apart, it occurs to us that Mr. Ladd either knows too much of the ballots cast, or he pretends to know too little of the pressure borne against Customhouse employees to prevent them from voting the Billings ticket. Mr. Ladd, who was Mr. Billings' chief manager in the canvass, knows that if every thing had been equal his nominee would have been successful, and it reflects no credit on Mr. Ladd now that his candidate has been defeated, to defend the course pursued to beat him, when no one more loudly opposed, more openly rebuked, and indignantly inveighed against the "tricks that were dark" than Mr. Ladd himself in the Convention? What has occurred since then to change his opinion and expressions?

C. C. ANTOINE.

Over the signature of "Pacificus" there appears in the National Republican, of July 4, what purports to be a letter from a New Orleans correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, in which Marshal Packard, and the ticket he nominated at Baton Rouge, are heavily whitewashed.

But the checkiest, boldest and most ludicrous of all that it contains is the following paragraph on Senator Antoine:

"For Lieutenant Governor, C. C. Antoine is the most popular colored man, since the death of Dunn, in the State, as his unanimous nomination indicates. He is a State Senator, jet black, an able presiding officer, and as honest as the day is long. Last winter he slept, ate and drank with the Democratic State Senators on board the "Wilderness," and refused to sell out to the Warmoth faction for $20,000, but lost large sums by clinging to the Reform Republicans."

We assert that the statement that he (Antoine) refused to sell out to the Warmoth faction for $20,000 is an unmitigated falsehood, and we challenge this correspondent to bring forward the proof.

Yes, he "slept, ate and drank with the Democratic State Senators on board the 'Wilderness.'"

Blinded by the delusive hope held out to him by the Federal officers here, that they would make him Lieutenant Governor, or, worse, bought up by Democratic and Customhouse money, under the pretext of opposing Governor Warmoth, he joined the Democratic Senators in their attempt to overthrow the State Government and put out of the office of Lieutenant Governor, a colored man, his personal and political friend and partner in business.

Such conduct as this the colored people will never tolerate in one of their class, and this correspondent and the Federal office-holders will find that neither the name of General Grant, nor the cry of "regular" ticket will be powerful enough to make the people vote for a ticket with such material on it as this.

PINCHBACK ON THE BRAIN.—To those who were uninterested spectators at the late Packard Convention, it was very evident that many of the delegates were seriously afflicted with Pinchback on the brain. They appeared to dread him as much as some of the superstitious colored people do the "voudo queen." We heard one very intelligent looking colored delegate frantically exclaim, "It won't do to let Mr. Pinchback come into our convention. If he gets in there he will be nominated in spite of hell!"

The above is from the Baton Rouge State Journal of June 26th. As our cotemporary undertakes to explain one of the reasons why the Packard Convention durst not "harmonize" with the Pinchback Convention, and has chosen a racy style of description, we allow him to speak for himself.

INDIGNATION & REPUDIATION.

The meeting in Lafayettes square last Thursday night was very largely attended by one of the most promiscuous crowds we have lately seen, and there is no wonder that nothing was said or done on the platform that was not challenged or objected to by someone or more, in the assemblage. The principal speakers Messrs. Carter, Wilson and Caldwell, who fought their way through very commendably and dealt deserved blows at the usurping crowd in the Customhouse, who even had their employees in the crowd to disturb the speakers and create confusion.

The speeches made and resolutions adopted on the occasion embody the views and feelings of the getters up of the meeting, and they denounce the conduct of S. B. Packard & Co., in forcing, by corrupt means, the nomination of a ticket on the Convention. And repudiating this conduct, cut themselves loose from all further association with the Customhouse party.

The loss of such men to this crowd will be severely felt, and from the knowledge which they possess of the plans, purposes and policy of the Packardites, they are likely to prove formidable antagonists in whatever party they take their place. From their former conduct and surroundings it is fair to infer that they will return to the old fold and labor earnestly for the success of their honored party.

"WHAT OUTRAGE?"—Dr. J. T. Newman, with the anxiety of a novice in politics is likely to find himself in a compromised position. We think he has erred in rushing headlong into print to apoligise to Republicanism, when it was not offended by him. The doctor is sorry that he read those resolutions in Lafayette square; if he had known their purport and contents he would not have "committed such an outrage on Republicanism." Well, we have looked all through those resolutions and can't find this outrage; and we are informed by gentlemen who conversed with the doctor on the conduct of the Customhouse crowd at Baton Rouge, that he uttered expressions equally strong, and spoke in the same vein of the resolutions for days before the meeting. What is the difference between conversational or set denunciatiion?

☞The New Orleans correspondent of the Missouri Democrat has, we fear, unwittingly tread on some corns.

He says, "that after the death of Lt. Governor Dunn, Senator C. C. Antoine was the next representative man of his race." We know Senator Antoine, and believe this will be news to him. But where is Chester with his charge to the boys in Congo square, to "remember Dunn, and follow Ingraham?" Oh! Cromwell where are you with your lament that "Dunn had no fit successor,' and only some white man should be taken on trial in his place?" National Republican where are you with your beslabbering laudations of Col. James Lewis, as the chief representative man of his race? In all conscience, how many races, or how many representatives have we got?

—THE Morning Gazette of Washington City, of June 23, contains the following notice and compliment of one of our promising youth, and we have pleasure in transfering it to our columns:

Mr. James D. Kennedy, one of the messengers in the United States Senate, well known for his politeness and urbanity to all who witness the deliberations of the Senate from the ladies' gallery, has been granted a leave of absence by John R. French, esq., Sergeant-at-arms, to visit his home in New Orleans, La.

OUR VICE-PRESIDENTS.—Of our seventeen Vice-Presidents, but four have been re-elected: John Adams, George Clinton, D. D. Tompkins, and John C, Calhoun. Yet the list has included many eminent, able and patriotic statesmen; some of them quite equal in every high quality to the Presidents elected with them. Of our Presidents, Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Lincoln, seven in all, have been rechosen—then why not as many Vice-Presidents? We cannot remember that any but Mr. Colfax declined a re-election, and he reconsidered his determination and consented to serve his party by running again. We do not regard our Vice-Presidents as, on the whole, less deserving than our Presidents; but the latter wielded a vast official patronage, while the former did not; hence the former have often. and the latter selcom been re-elected.—Exchange.

NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK.

At all times gratifying to witness the establishment and success of institutions, which promote and encourage frugality among the laboring masses who, ordinarily live from hand to mouth, and are so subjected to misery from the vicissitddes of life, and which cultivate forethought and preparation against reverses, it is especially satisfactory to observe the success which is steadily attending the above Institution all over the country.

In our own city the indications are of a highly flattery character, as the following figures will show:

Since the organization of this branch six years ago, there has been

Deposited	$1,871,326 24
Drafts paid	1,613,823 90
Due depositors	$257,502 34
During the month of May, 1872, there were deposited	$145,568 51
Drafts paid	135,378 92
Gain	$10,189 59

For an institution whose principal business is done with the laboring massess, who merely lay by savings, this is exceedingly good; and the large amount received and paid out since the organization of the Savings is very good evidence of the safety and solvency of the concern.

The deposits for May, a dull month, are also good, and afford proof of the incresing appreciation of the people of the benefits of saving money.

What is said of the New Orleans branch, may also be said of the Institution generally. There are thirty-three branches of the Freedman's Savings Bank, and there is on deposit in them the respectable sum of $3,800,000.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

The bill introduced by Hon. Lewis H. Douglass, in the Legislative Council of the District of Columbia, having passed the House of Delegates and having been approved by his Excellency Gov. Henry D. Cooke will, in accordance with the organic act, be in force in thirty days from the date of its approval, which will be the 20th of July. This bill provides that keepers of restaurants, ice cream saloons, or soda fountains shall place in a conspicuous place the price list of the articles they have for sale. This provision is made in order that those who think to deter colored people from applying for refreshments by exhorbitant charges after they have been served, may be prevented from so overcharging. Any refusal to wait upon any well-behaved and respectable person is met by a fine of one hundred dollars and a forfeiture of license for one year.

We have been informed that on Sunday last several apothecaries took especial pains to insult colored ladies and gentlemen applying for soda water. In one instance a couple of colored ladies were driven out of a store amid the jeers and insulting remarks of white gentlemen (?) who undoubtedly imagined that they were enacting a manly part. One apothecary informed a colored gentleman that after the 20th of July he should place at his fountain black glasses for colored people, and white glasses for white people, thus showing his solo object to be to insult colored people in obedience to his diabolical spirit of hate and prejudice.

Has not the time arrived when these foolish prejudices of oppression should cease to control in a government where all classes participate in governing, where the black legislator side with the white legislator assists in watching and guarding the interests of the community.

Have we not the right to except of a class of people boasting intelligence, culture, and refinement freedom from a prejudice against a man because of his color, to the extent of denying him decent treatment? Can the white people of this community with all their intelligence, give a good reason why gentlemen and ladies, though black, are not entitled to the treatment that decency and respectability should receive? We now have a law to protect colored people from insult, and we trust that it will be strictly enforced.—New National Era.

CIRCULAR.

Headquarters Sub Executive Committee Regular Republican Party of Louisiana,
No. 16 Dryades Street,
New Orleans, July,——1872.

Sir:——

You are respectfully requested to transmit to these Headquarters at your earliest convenience, the names of the officers and members of your Parish Committee, the number of clubs organized, their officers and number of members, and the time and places of meeting of the several organizations, in order that this Committee may furnish campaign documents, Speakers and other material necessary to carry on a vigorous and successful campaign.

You will see by the call issued by Hon. Hugh J. Campbell, President of the State Central committee, that your parish is entitled to——additional delegates, making a total of——delegates entitled to seats in the adjourned Convention to meet August 9th, 1872, at Mechanics' Institute, New Orleans, at 12 o'clock noon.

It is therefore ordered that an election be held in your parish to choose the additional delegates on or before the 18th of July, 1872, and that copies of credentials of the persons elected be at once forwarded to these Headquarters.

You are earnestly requested to use your utmost endeavors to have selected as additional delegates, your best representative men, for TO US IS COMMITTED THE TASK OF SAVING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND PERPETUATING ITS GLORIOUS PRINCIPLES.

The gross, false, fraudulent and tyrannical action of the Customhouse Convention at Baton Rouge, in expelling their best and most independent men, and packing their Convention in the interest of a small and corrupt ring, and PREVENTING THE UNITING OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, have completely disgusted the best of their former adherents, and the ticket they have nominated has consequently and justly met with universal condemnation.

THE HEARTS OF THE PEOPLE ARE WITH us and only wait our prompt and energetic action; we therefore urge your organizing thoroughly and quickly, by enrolling in alphabetical order every member, which will enable the club to ascertain without difficulty who are entitled to participate in its business, or to vote at primary elections. It is desirable that you extend a cordial invitation to every Republican, and, to all law abiding citizens, to come forward and join your organization.

In this work you will find a quick and hearty response from the people, which will make our convention of August 9 next, a representative and powerful body, and one that will nominate a ticket which will command the respect of its opponents, and secure the united support of every true Republican, and of every well wisher of his State, and of all who desire an honest, stable and economical government for Louisiana, as well as of those who disapprove antagonism of the races, and who desire united action of the people, without reference to race, color or previous condition, or former political affiliations.

Respectfully your obd't servants,
P. B. S. PINCHBACK.

A NEW EDITOR DEFINES HIS POSITION.—A new weekly paper has been started in Bath County, Kentucky. The editor says, by way of salutatory.

"We would soon expect to win a fortune by betting against a 'pat' hand, as to suppose that we shall please everybody. No doubt, in the course of human events, we shall realize those pleasent little editorial episodes in which indignant readers find no other soothing syrup for their wounded feelings, than by attempting to 'put a head on the editor,' paint a mornful expression over his eye, or, without consulting him as to whether he 'wants to be an angel and with the angels stand,' endeavor to send him to the bourne (on a dead-head ticket) from whence no editor returns. We stand six feet in our stockens in the winter time; five feet eleven inches and a half, without socks, in the summer season. Our principal amusements when a boy, was to throw one hundred pound anvils over our head, hold a barrel of flour at arm's length, and practice other muscular developments. Aided by our early education in the manly art, we shall endeavor to hoe our own row, paddle our own canoe any hold a full hand in the editorial game of 'bluff.'"

WHAT WOMEN LIKE IN MEN.

Women, though they may a always indicate them in the choice their husbands, have very decid perferences among men. It mig be supposed that mere masculi beauty of form and features wo be sure of commanding a woma attention and securing her affecti but experience disproves this. So of the most successful suitors of t female sex have been noted for th ungliness. The coarse, distort face of the fierce Mirabeau, leering eye and slavering mouth the noted Wilkes, and the dwarf skulking figure of the intrigu Burr, were no obstacles to th wooing and winning the most bea tiful women. Wilkes boasted, wh he confessed himself the ugliest m in England, that he only require half an hour's talk with a woma to get the better of the handsome fellow in the company. It was ce tainly not the beauty of face figure which was the attraction th drew women to the embrace of the ugly but noted men. What pleas women in man above all is his d votion to her. The failure of t handsome fellow to gain her affec tion is thus easily accounted fo He is sure to be a coxcomb, and absorbed in the contemplation his own personal attractions as t give little heed to those of th other sex. The ugly gallant is no diverted by any self-admiration from his devoirs to female beauty and thus gives up his whole soul its worship; and, whatever may b his shortcomings in other respect he is forgiven, and receives the fu reward of the faithful.

Women, too, are apt to fall fondly to those men who are notable They are ambitious; and by associ ating themselves with those wh are distinguished, they seem t share in their brilliancy of reputa tion. Leaders of the people, suc as Mirabeau and Wilkes, are su rounded by just that kind of ecla which dazzles the eye of wome and lures her on. The secret o successful courtship is constant de votion rather than brilliancy o stategy.

THE CUSTOM OF TREATING.

If I could persuade all the young people of Elmira never to treat each other, nor be treated, I think or half of the danger from our strong drink would be gone. If I can no get you to sign the total abstinence pledge, binding until you are 35, would be glad to have you promis three things: First, never to drink on the sly, alone; second, never t drink socially, treating or being treated; third, when you drink, d it openly, and in the presence o some man or woman whom you re spect.

Now, boys, if you wish to be generous and treat each other, why not select some other shop beside the liquor shop? Suppose, as you go by the Postoffice, you say "Come, boys, come in and take some stamps." These stamps will do your friends a real good, and will cost you no more than drinks all round. Or go by the tailor's store and say, "Boys, come in and take a box of collars." Walk up to the counter, free and generous, and say "what style will you have?" why not treat to collars as well as treat to drinks? Or go by a confectioner's and propose to chocolate drops all round. Or say, "Boy's, take a newspaper." Or say, "I'll stand a jack-knife all round."

How does it happen that we have fallen into a habit almost compul-of social drinking? You many a time when asked to really you do not want to. a man has treated you, you mean and indebted, and keep of account current in your and treat him. Fifth Ward Radical Republican Mother Club.

New Orleans, June 26, 1872.

At a regular meeting held this day of the Fifth Ward Republican Mother Club, the following resolution, presented by John A. Ebert, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Customhouse con- vention assembled at Baton Rouge on the thirteenth day of June, 1872, did not rep- resent the Republican party of Louisiana. It was packed, by the utmost outrageous fraud and corruption, in the interests of the Customhouse. It expelled the legally elected delegates of the people and put in their places men who did not live in the parishes they pretended to represent. The president and secretary were convicted by their own convention of fraudulently al- tering the rolls. Their masters, by a trick, when they discovered that the majority of the convention favored a union with the Regular Republicans, substituted a fraud- ulent resolution in place of the one really passed, by which such insulting conditions were imposed that union was made impos- sible. They refused all honorable offers of compromise with the regular Republicans. They nominated a Johnson Democrat for Governor, who swore that in the massacre of 1866 the rebels were peaceable and the negroes were the rioters, who filled the Customhouse with Democrats, and did not employ a single colored man in it; who dodged a vote on Sumner's civil rights bill. They nominated for Lieutenant Gov- ernor a Wilderness Senator, who tried to overturn the State Government, to turn out a colored Lieutenant Governor, and put in a Democrat, to turn out a Republi- can Governor, to turn out four Republi- can State Senators and put Democrats in their places. They crammed the Demo- crat Kellogg down the throats of the con- vention, in place of the Republican Mary, who was really their choice. And finally, by all this series of black, treacherous and infamous Customhouse dictation they have driven away over one-half of their own numbers, cut off from them the whole body of regular Republicans, and com- pletely disgusted the whole people of the State; and, therefore, we cannot and will not support their candidates, or recognize their organization in any way, but will give our hearty and united support to the nominees of the regular Republican con- vention, to meet in New Orleans, August 9, 1872, and presided over by Hon. H. J. Campbell.

Resolved, That the resolution be pub- lished in the New Orleans Republican.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE American People
OF THE INTRODUCTION
FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE UNITED STATES OF
Dr. G. Colletso's
CELEBATED EUROPEAN RENOWNED ALTERATIVE PILLS.

The success of which in England, France, Germany, Austria and Prussia is unprecidented, having entirely superseded all magnesias, salts, seltzers, oils, etc., of every description, and are universally acknowledged to be the most effective and agreeable Purgative ever yet introduced.

Dr. Colletso has just completed arrange- ments to supply the people in America with his valuable Pills, and to prevent any imita- tion of them, manufactures them at his Cen- tral Depot, No. 32 Carondelet street, New Or- leans, where orders are already pouring in from all parts of the country. Dr. Calletso, to assure the people that his

are not gotten up on speculation and never yet tried, would state that he is a graduate member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and during his extensive practice for the last twenty-five years in Europe, has abored to produce some medicine which would come within the reach of all, and and which would effectually cure a large number of complaints so general, and for the want of an article of this kind generally goes neglected until the healt is impaired and undermined and the constitution shat- tered. He, therefore, has tried them effec- ually in Europe for the last fifteen years, with the most satisfactory results, and their access has been so complete, that it has as- tonished even himself, and surpassed his most sanguine expectations. One or two boxes save hundreds of dollars in doctors' fees every year in curing the following com- plaints, which are at the foundation of all diseases:

If your blood is rancid or vitiated, purify it with

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your skin is diseased and you are cov- ered with pimples, boils, blotches, old sores, scurvy or scrofula,

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will remove and cure them all.

If you are worse, and have Ulcers, Cancer or Tumors, the effect is magical and the cure complete in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your Liver is sluggish and you are suf- fering with jaundice and palpitation of the heart, you can be cured by taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your digestion is bad, and you are con- stipated, your skin dry and feverish, your head hot and aching, your mouth and lips parched and your eyes red and constipated, or inflamed, you will find immediate relief in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have inflammation of the stomach, bowels, womb, kidneys or bladder, with pain in the small of the back, difficulty in stoop- ing without falling, weakness in the knees and dizziness in the head, with dimness of sight, you can remove the inflammation and restore your strength by using

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have an enfeebled and debilitated constitution, and are afflicted with lassitude, loss of memory, loss of sleep, loss of appe- tite, short breath, and are nervous and rest- less, with bad circulation of the blood, try

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you reside in a climate where you are liable to Yellow Fever, Typhoid or Typhus Fever, or Fever and Ague, you can escape these diseases entirely by taking as a pre- ventive

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

In spring and summer, when dysentery and diarrhœa are so prevalent among children and adults, one box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will check the complaint and cure you at once. Should you be attacked with that dread disease, Cholera, so fatal in its effects, its perfectly harmless if you are provided with a box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS!

The following is only one of thousands of thousands of testimonials that could be pub- lished, but as it is from four of the most eminent Physicians in London, it is consid- ered substantial proof of their efficacy in Fever and Cholera cases:

12 HYDE PARK GATE,
London, August 25, 1871.

Dr. G. Colletso:

DEAR SIR—We have pleasure in informing you that after several trials of your valuable ALTERATIVE PILLS, both among our outside patients and especially in the Fever and Cholera Hospitals, we have found that in every case where your Pills were given in time, that they invariably checked the disease at once, and especially so in all Cholera cases, not a single life of which has been los. wherever we have used them. Such is our confidence, after having proved them by five years' experience, we have decided to adopt their use altogether, and desire to express to you our most distinguished regard for so valuable and useful a discovery. Please for- ward to above address one gross boxes of your ALTERATIVE PILLS, and find inclosed cheque for same, and oblige your most obe- dient servants,

A. K. WYMAN, Bart. M. D.
JOHN F. MARTIN, M. D.
HENRY C. RODEN, M. D.
C. K. TRACY, M. D.

Dr. Colletso would also state as an evidence of their usefulness in Fever cases that his were used by His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WHALES during his illness, and the sur- geons would not allow any other Purgative Medicine to be used.

In order that the people may not be de- ceived in purchasing his Alterative Pills, he would state that they are all manufactured at his where he prefers to receive all applications that he may send a medicine which he can guarantee and which will prevent impostors from trying to counterfeit; but after having once used these, patients can never be de- ceived by the substitution of any obnoxious compound.

Price per box $1, or six boxes $5; delivered to any address in the country.

All letters and applications through the post should be addressed to

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A supplement containing numerous full- sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is pub- lished weekly

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pic- tures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeep- ing in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is in- tended to interest and instruct, and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average fam- ilies—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes hap- pier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Na- tion, N. Y.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Notices of the Press.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear per- petually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfac- sion by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while suf- ficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and design- ed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "So- ciety for the Diffusion of Useful Knowl- edge." The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the peo- ple. There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly- welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Maga- zines are accumulate HARPER'S is edit ed. There is not a agazine that is print- ed which shows more intelligent pains ex- on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine publish- ed. There is not, confessedly, a more pop- ular Magazine in the world.

—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism— the editorial management of HARPER'S.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, HARPER'S WEEK- LY has earned for itself a right to its title, "A JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION."—New York Evening Post,

Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beauti- ful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveler.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instruc- tive, entertaining, and unexceptionable. —N. Y. Sun.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL

OF A

WALTHAM WATCH

BEATS

4 times a second,

240 times a minute,

14,400 times an hour,

345,600 times a day,

292,00 times a week,

10,368,000 times a month,

126,144,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH, THAN ANY OTHER KIND OF MACHERY.

It must not only run all day, butall night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stand up. When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

will fulfil all these requirements. I wound once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

CONTAINS

5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM

Watches have seven Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWEL THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery, The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch coast over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finisheds as perfectly for TEN TIMES AS MUCH.

A Genuine waltham Watch

Is interchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, withuot any reference to their former combination. This is a
